

A-Tech Science Bowl Club Constitution

Last Revised: September 29, 2023

Article I - Name of Club

The name of this club is Advanced Technologies Academy National Science Bowl Club. Alternative names that can be used include Science Bowl Club and ATA Sci-Bowl.

Article II - Purpose of Club

The purpose of this club is to help students study, practice for, and work together to compete in the Nevada Regional High School Science Bowl at Advanced technologies academy.

Article III - Officers of Club

The different officer positions of this club are:

President and Co-Presidents: Administers this club's activities and discuss ideas with the Vice Presidents

Vice President: Promote this club, enforce club policies, and work for the benefit of this club

Historian: Keep records and track members of this club

Secretary: Handle paperwork for this club

Treasurer: Handle money for this club

Article IV - Membership Requirements

There are no requirements for membership in this club, other than attending Advanced Technologies Academy.

Article V - Meetings

This club's leadership will contact members about meetings, there are no minimum requirements for meeting attendance.

Article VI - Elections

This club's officers are to be elected by the members of this club from the set candidates nominated. Candidates can be nominated by a president or vice president of this club.

Article VII - Amendments

There needs to be a consensus of the president and vice president to add an amendment to the constitution. Otherwise no amendments can be made to the constitution.