

A-Tech Math Club Constitution

Last Revised: September 11, 2023

Article I - Name of Club

The name of this club is Mu Alpha Theta Honors Society. Alternative names that can be used include Mathematics Club and Math Club.

Article II - Purpose of Club

The purpose of this club is to promote mathematical excellence and Mu Alpha Theta at Advanced technologies academy.

Article IV - Officers of Club

The different officer positions of this club are:

President: Administrates this club's activities and discuss ideas with the Vice Presidents

Vice President and Co-Vice President: Promote this club, enforce club policies, and work for the benefit of this club

Historian: Keep records and track members of this club

Secretary: Handle paperwork for this club

Treasurer: Handle money for this club

Article III - Membership Requirements

Members of this club must have taken Algebra I or a mathematics class beyond, and have a 3.0+ GPA.

Article V - Meetings

This club's leadership will contact members about meetings, there are no minimum requirements for meeting attendance.

Article VI - Elections

This club's officers are to be elected by the members of this club from the set candidates nominated. Candidates can be nominated by a president or vice president of this club.

Article VII - Amendments

There needs to be a consensus of the president and vice president to add an amendment to the constitution. Otherwise no amendments can be made to the constitution.